CHANAVIA HADDOCK is an author, artist, and lover of all things creative. As a child Chanavia was always drawn to the beauty of nature. As an adult that fascination has only intensified with her realization that nature explains everything. For more information or to contact her visit her website at www.chanavia.com.

LIZ AMINI-HOLMES is the illustrator of the award winning "Fatty Legs: A True Story," and "A Stranger at Home," as well as numerous other books and artwork. She lives with her family and assortment of pets in the San Francisco Bay area where sadly, snow is far away. This lyrical and beautifully illustrated 24-page picture book is sure to delight and inspire for years to come.

Join Piper Rose as she searches for a miracle throughout the pages of this book. Watch as she goes from playful excitement, to frustration and despair, and finally joy and relief when she discovers her miracle.

Miracle offers us an opportunity to plant the seeds of miracle minded thinking in the hearts and minds of children while being something adults can enjoy and appreciate as well. In its subtlety and simplicity, it lets us see that the miracle is always there if we're willing to see it.

Be on the lookout for miracles throughout the pages of this book. They're everywhere!

"It's magically beautiFUL." –Synthia Saint James, World Renowned Visual Artist, Author, Educator, & Speaker

"This was a short and simple book, but it had a great, timeless message . . ." --Baby Bookworm

"The snowy scenes ...exude a quiet, wintry peacefulness." – Publishers Weekly
